Brighton-area projects win open-space grants

The Adams County Board of Commissioners awarded $5.9 million in open space grants Tuesday for 20 projects. Funding for the grant cycle came from revenues from the first half of the 2018 Adams County Open Space Sales Tax, which was passed by Adams County voters in 1999.

The Open Space Advisory Board reviewed 20 grant applications this grant cycle, recommending the Board of County Commissioners to approve full funding for all of the applications. Tuesday, 20 project grants were awarded totaling $5,953,384.50. Four of the grants will support Brighton-

Funeral notices

George John Seader III, 69, of Aurora, died Oct. 2. Following graduation from Brighton High School in 1967, George enlisted in the Air Force, retiring at the rank of senior master sergeant. During his 22½-year decorated military career, he served in Vietnam and earned many honors, including Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with Valor Device, 4 Oak Leaf Cluster and Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross and Palm. He married Wendy Seader, in June 1999. She was his rock and his most fierce support in life. George was her best friend, who she affectionately referred to as her "Passion Prince – Sweet of Sweets." He was a jack-of-all-trades and mastered them all. George loved telling knee-slapping stories and jokes, bringing all those around him joy. Survivors are his wife, Wendy; a son, Adam Seader; a daughter, Amber Seader; his father, George John Seader Jr.; a sister, Sandra Seader; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer donations be made to the University of Colorado Jimeno Cancer Research.

John J. Coffey, 81, of Brighton, died Nov. 2. He was born in Brighton to Alfred Leo and Alice (Morse) Coffey. He graduated from Brighton High School in 1955. He married Iva Jean Mitchell in 1957. John was an employee of Interstate Vending Co., retiring in 1991 after 30 years with the company. For 10 years John helped operate the Barr Lake Tavern. Survivors include his son, Leo J. Coffey of Brighton; sister Frances Steggs of New Mexico; six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Iva, in 1993; son David in 2010; and daughter Shirley Steggs. Memorial service, 10 a.m. Friday at Tabor-Rice Funeral Home. Tabor-Rice Funeral Home.
