Joelle L. Martinez, executive director of the Latino Leadership Institute at University of Denver, shares some of her life lessons and inspirations Friday as the keynote speaker for the inaugural Evolution Women's Conference, hosted by the Greater Brighton Chamber of Commerce. From her parents, Martinez learned to persevere. From her great-grandmother's fear, she learned to be fearless. From one of her grandmothers she learned character. Her grandfather had a checklist of all the things he wished he had done. "Your time and space of leadership is pretty limited," she said. "So create a legacy you'll be proud of." She was one of several speakers for the full day of presentations and activities. See additional photo, Page 2. Daily Post photo

Sheriff issues burn restriction

Due to severe dry conditions, Adams County Sheriff Michael McIntosh has issued a Level 1 Burn Restriction for unincorporated Adams County, east of North Schumaker Road (NWS Fire Zone 245). The burn restriction will remain in effect until the order is formally rescinded or temporarily suspended by the sheriff, according to a news release from the department.

The following are prohibited in unincorporated Adams County until further notice: "1. building, maintaining, attending, or using any fire or campfire."

Exemptions:

- Persons with a valid written permit from the fire chief that specifically authorizes the otherwise prohibited act. Check with appropriate fire district for permit requirements, if any.

- Any federal, state, or local officer or member of an organized rescue or

Funeral notices

Patricia Gall, 75, of Lochbuie, died June 12. She was born in Trinidad to Maximo and Mary Suzie (Gonzales) Tafoya, and to a family of 15 brothers and sisters. The family moved to Denver shortly after her birth due to her illness. Patricia attended Cole Middle School and then had to stop school to help the family. Patricia worked in the laundry, grocery store, Seattle Fish Co., Kmart and as a school bus driver. Patricia retired in 2008. She married Curtis J. Gall in 1995. They bought a home in Lochbuie in 1999. Survivors include her husband; children Jerry Anderson of Fort Lupton, Liz Velez of Dallas, Texas, Jesse Anderson of Denver and Pam Anderson of Denver; 21 grandchildren; 53 great-grandchildren; and three brothers and four sisters. She was preceded in death by her parents, six brothers and one sister. Memorial service, 3 p.m., Saturday at Tabor-Rice Funeral Home. Full obit Tabor-Rice.

Eulalio (Lalo) Zaragoza, 84, died June 9, at St. Joseph's hospital in Denver, surrounded by family. Survivors include his brothers Julio, Ambrose (Phyllis), Victor and his sisters Phyllis and Delfie. He was one of eight children born to Cruz and Angelina Zaragoza. He was preceded in death by his brothers Cruz Jr. and Johnny. Lalo served in the Army. He coached the Metro Wrestling and Football Leagues that benefited community youth. He was president of the Brighton Eagles Club Aerie 3365 for many years. A memorial service will be performed June 22 at 7 p.m. in St. William's church in Fort Lupton. Celebration of Lalo's life and dinner, 2 p.m. June 23, at Brighton Eagles Club Aerie 3365. Full obit Tabor-Rice.

Michael A. Sena, 56, of Brighton, died June 9. He was born in Brighton to Senida and Jose Sena. He graduated from Brighton High School in 1980. He married Wanda in 1984. Michael worked for Leed Fabrication Services in Brighton the past 10 years.

Survivors include his parents, Jose and Pamela Sena, and Senida Sena; wife Wanda of Brighton; son Anthony Sena; grandchildren Jaymeson, Jacob and Jeramyah of Brighton; brothers Joseph Sena and Steven Sena of Brighton; and sister Bridgette (Beto) Anguiano of Brighton. Funeral service, 10 a.m., Tuesday, Tabor-Rice Funeral Home. Obit Tabor-Rice.

Jesse James Watson, 14, and Gregory Jase "P'nut" Watson, 8, died in a car accident June 4. The family was driving to an annual lake trip. The boys died the way they always were in life – together. Jesse James was born in Brighton. He was a Brighton High School student, going into his sophomore year, where he played football. Jesse was a caring son, a loving brother, and adored his family; especially "P'nut" Jase. Gregory Jase "P'nut" Watson was born in Brighton. He was a fun-loving 8-year-old, who spent his days playing little league football, and a lot of video games. P'nut was a student at Southeast Elementary and was going into third grade. Jesse and P'nut were always together and looking out for one another, just as brothers do. Even there at the end, they needed each other. Survivors include their parents, Jacey and Gregory Watson; sister Jondra Watson. Memorial service, 10 a.m., Saturday at Harvest Fellowship. In lieu of flowers, send contributions to: Watson Boys Memorial Foundation at any Wells Fargo. Tabor-Rice.

Robert Hatt, 53, of Brighton, died May 28. Survivors include his wife, Carol; children Anthony, Matthew, Vanessa, Natasha and Baylee; seven grandchildren. Celebration of his life, 4 p.m.-midnight, June 23 – open-house at the family home, 15060 Jalna Court.

Mary "Kathy" Getz (McQuaid), 64, of Brighton, died May 28. Celebrate her life: 10 a.m., June 22, Tabor-Rice Funeral Home. Reception follows at Columbian Home Event Center, 1096 E. Bridge. Obit Tabor-Rice.
