Gardening meetings planned for summer

Those with a green thumb have a new resource at their fingertips. Cassey Anderson with the Adams County Master Gardeners will hold monthly meetings in Brighton throughout the summer.

Anderson will offer research-based advice and information for the home gardener and will answer questions. The meetings also will address seasonal concerns you may have in your garden, according to a city news release.

Adams County Master Gardeners will hold two monthly meetings: one every third Tuesday of the month from 6-7:30 p.m. at the Zion Community Garden, 395 S. 14th Ave.,
