

Brighton window

Steve Yarish represents E.G. "Ted" Waymire during the fourth Cemetery Walk as the flag behind him stiffens in high winds. In fact, the wind, combined with the cold, forced closure of the event about 2 p.m., an hour after it started on Saturday at Elmwood Cemetery. Branches blew down near visitors, and exhibitor tents were damaged.

Daily Post photo

Two Days

Today

9:30-10:15 a.m. – Toddler Tales, Anythink Brighton; time with your toddler, stories, songs and finger plays geared for them; and a few minutes of social time with other caregivers while the children play; ages 2-3. RSVP online.

10:30-11 a.m. – Music & Movement, Anythink Brighton; sing, dance, and learn how to play some basic instruments. For kids ages 2-6. RSVP online.

11 a.m. – Pop-Up Story time presented by Hudson Public Library at Welcome to the Bookstore, 1300 E. Bridge, Dress up for a spooky good story time

4-5 p.m. – Story Lab, Anythink Brighton; Discover the world of story through reading, writing and storytelling. For kids in grades 3-8.

5:30-7:30 p.m. – Maker Mondays, Anythink Brighton; Take paper crafts to the next level with LEDs; a fun, interactive evening in The Studio, drop-in program. For ages 5 and up; adult helpers required for children 10 and under.

Tuesday

9:30-10:15 a.m. – Baby Bounce, Anythink Brighton; songs, rhymes and stories for babies and their caregivers. For ages birth-23 months. RSVP online.

10-11 a.m. – Tech Time Tuesdays, Anythink Brighton; Finding Health Information Online – accurate, reliable health and wellness information; RSVP online.

10 a.m.-2 p.m. – Medicare Counseling, Eagle View Adult Center; one-on-one help with trained counselor Ann Brothers; call 303-655-2079 to make appointment, $5.

11 a.m.-noon – Drop-in Tech Help, Anythink Brighton; one-on-one help, email, any tech question. All ages.

3-4 p.m. – Stroke Survivor's Group, Platte Valley Medical Center Conference Room B; and Stroke Caregiver's Group, Conference Room C; Groups for patients who have experienced a stroke, and the families who care for them; support, education, community. Groups for survivors and caretakers address your individual needs. To learn more, call Amanda Tarr at 303-498-1873. No need to RSVP, just come in.

4 p.m. to sunset – Tuesday Evenings on the Eagle Express, Barr Lake, 2- to 3-hour excursion to bald eagle nest-viewing; RSVP, confirm time. Dress for weather, bring picnic dinner, bug spray. Meet at the boat ramp.

4-5 p.m. – STEAM Tuesdays, Anythink Brighton; Barr Lake Ranger Talk – Learn about a natural facet from Barr Lake State Park; explore science, technology, engineering, art and math. For grades K-5. RSVP online.

5:45-6:30 p.m. – Pilates Mat Class, Platte Valley Medical Center, Suite 130; $9, RSVP 303-498-1840.

7 p.m. – Bible Study Fellowship, Men's group at Zion Congregational Church on 27th Ave.; Women's group at Brighton United Methodist Church on Eighth Ave.; interdenominational Bible study. All welcome. To learn more call Kristen, 303-654-0972, or Caroline, 303-659-4686.

Deputy county manager appointed

Bryan Ostler has been appointed as Adams County deputy county manager of Community Services, overseeing external departments, including the Adams County Animal Shelter, Community and Economic Development, Front Range Airport, Human Services, Parks and Open Space, and Public Works.

Ostler has more than 13 years of experience in the public sector and has been serving as interim deputy county manager since September 2016. Ostler joined Adams County in 2011 as director of Human Resources and previously worked as deputy town manager in Frederick and as management analyst for Westminster.

Page 2 • Funeral notices • Gas Gauge • More

"Bryan has been tireless in his dedication and service to Adams County and its residents over the years," said County Manager Raymond Gonzales. "He will be an excellent leader for our most visible departments that have the most interaction with our resi-

See "Adams County" on Page 2

The Daily Post from Local Color®

2006 Small Business of the Year

www.localcolormag.com • 720-937-6064

© 2017 by Local Color, Brighton, CO

E-mail news and photos to:

dailypost@localcolormag.com

KEN for MAYOR
Let's Build Brighton Together
#KenK4mayor

Adams County from Page 1

dents and businesses.”

In a corresponding move, Terri Lauth has been named director of the Human Resources Department. Lauth served as the department’s interim director since September 2016 before being appointed to the position per-

Gas gauge

$2.25.9 Lowest unleaded price as of 5:30 p.m. Sunday:
• Murphy Express and Agfinity/Cenex on Bromley Lane; and Gas-a-Mat on South Main Street

Adult Center Craft Fair Nov. 4

The Eagle View Adult Center will host its Annual Craft Fair from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Nov. 4, at the center, 1150 Prairie Center Parkway.

Sixty-two vendors will sell homemade crafts. The Annual Craft Fair has been a popular community event, featuring local artisans and bringing Brighton residents together to appreciate creative talent and get an early manently.

Lauth has worked for Adams County for 18 years and served for six years as deputy director of Human Resources. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Chadron State College, a Master of Business Administration from the University of Wyoming, and obtained her Senior Professional Human Resources certification.

“Our Human Resources team serves more than 2,000 county employees, and during her time as interim director, Terri has proven to be an effective leader who gets things done for those employees,” Gonzales said. “Given Terri’s exceptional knowledge and experience, I’m thrilled to appoint her as director.”

During the past year as interim director, Lauth has provided guidance, support and leadership to the Human Resources Department in online benefits open enrollment, 2018 benefits renewal, establishment of the Benefits Advisory Committee, 2018 pay plan recommendations, and a job description update project.

start on holiday shopping.

Bake-sale goods, breakfast burritos and lunch items also will be available to attendees.

For the fourth year, United Power Inc. donated $500 to help with event expenses. All proceeds will go toward Eagle View Adult Center’s operating costs. To learn more, call the Eagle View Adult Center at 303-655-2075.

Funeral notices

Stanley "Stan" Dreyer, 86, of Springfield, Va., died Oct. 7. He was born in Brighton to Jannett and Frank Dreyer and grew up on the family farm where he was active in 4-H. He graduated from the University of Colorado and received a master's degree in agricultural economics from the University of Minnesota. His entire career was devoted to cooperatives. He was president of the Cooperative League of the USA and later joined the National Cooperative Bank, which he helped create. He served on several boards of international associations involved in the cooperative movement. He received numerous honors throughout his lifetime, including induction into the Cooperative Hall of Fame, but none more significant than the love and respect he received from people in all walks of life. He was an active member of Grace Presbyterian Church in Springfield. Survivors include his wife, Sharron; daughter Beth (Don) Kingston of Elizabethtown, Kent; son Steven of Gulf Breeze, Fla.; and two grandsons. Celebration of Stan's life, 1 p.m. Thursday at Grace Presbyterian Church, 7434 Bath St., Springfield. In lieu of flowers, donations in Stan's memory may be made to Grace Presbyterian Church for Dreyer Endowed Pledge; Cooperative Development Foundation, 1775 Eye St. NW, 8th floor, Washington, DC 20006.

Edwin "Perry" Miller, 95, of Brighton, died Oct. 10. He was born in Lincoln, Neb., to John H. and Joy (Mills) Miller. He graduated from Lincoln High School in 1940 and attended the University of Nebraska for one year before being drafted into the Air Corps. He served in World War II as a B-25 pilot trainer. Perry married Janet Wetzell in 1941 in Lincoln. She preceded him in death in 1971. He married Jewel White in 1977 in Brighton. Perry has lived in Brighton since 1971, an original homeowner of the Van Aire community. He was a member of the Brighton United Methodist Church; Brighton Rotary Club; and the Flying Lunch Bunch. Flying was a lifelong love of Perry's, a pilot since age 16, achieving his goal in 1976 of owning a Staggerwing Beech. He was a member of the Sports Car Club of America. Perry owned and operated Denver Imported Cars for many years. Survivors include his wife, Jewel; daughter Nancy (Michael Biglan) Miller of Brighton; stepchildren, Gary Jamieson, Diane Boehringer, Cindy Jamieson and David Jamieson; brother Dick (Kaye) Miller of Lincoln; two grandchildren; three step-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and one step great-grandchild. He also was preceded in death by grandson Case Densmore in 2000. Memorial service 11 a.m.

Wednesday at Brighton United Methodist Church. Memorial contributions can be made in his name to the Suicide Prevention Coalition of Colorado, P.O. Box 17614, Boulder, CO 80308. Obit Tabor-Rice

Eleonora "Nora" P. Hallett, 82, of Brighton, died on Oct. 4. She was born in Brazil. She worked as a dental technician while in Europe and while in the States worked as a CNA. She lived in Brighton for the last eight years. Survivors include her daughter, Regina Storms, of Dacono; step-sons Michael Piotrowski and Mark Dalby; two grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. Celebration of Life, 2-5 p.m. Oct. 28 at The Alli Event Center, 100 S. Third Ave. Obit Tabor-Rice

Caring for the Whole Family
OWL CREEK
FAMILY MEDICINE
Ya Hablamos Español

We still welcome Colorado
Medicaid/CHP Patients

303-655-1111

70 S. 20th Ave., Suite H
Brighton

Free book for preschoolers
each visit!

YOUR prospective
CUSTOMERS
are reading this, too!

GET THE WORD OUT!

Your LOCAL
publication

The Daily Post™

Ask us how:
720-937-6064