Marilyn R. Shidler, 93, of Brighton, died Feb. 7. She was born in Peetz to Harry S. and Elfrieda L. (Norcott) Ayres. She graduated from Denver Junior Academy in 1942. Not too long after graduation she was introduced to E. Joe Shidler. They shared an interest in roller-skating and soon became an item. She married Joe in 1943. Soon after, Joe left for the war. Following the war, Marilyn followed Joe to Northern California (Pacific Union College) and then to Southern California (Loma Linda University). Marilyn worked various jobs supporting the family during that time. One job she enjoyed was switchboard operator at the White Memorial Hospital. Marilyn was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist church and enjoyed many activities. She was active in Vacation Bible School, Pathfinders, as well as being church secretary. Summers would find her cooking at the SDA's Glacier View Camp in Peaceful Valley. She would spend 4-8 weeks each summer preparing meals. More recently, she was active in food preparation for many of the church functions. Marilyn was preceded in death by her husband Joe; son Merritt, and her brother Raymond Ayres. Survivors include her children Merrill, Jolene, Merlyn, Dianne and Shawn; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Memorial service (celebration of life), 2 p.m. today at the Brighton Seventh-Day Adventist Church. In lieu of flowers, consider donations to the Worthy Student Fund, Brighton Adventist Academy, 820 S. Fifth Ave. Obit Tabor-Rice.

Nina Alice Schloo, 88, of Brighton, died Jan. 31. She was born in Denver to Benjamin A. and Marian Esther (Flint) Ginther. She grew up on the farm in the East Lake area, southwest of Brighton. She was baptized at Zion Lutheran Church on March 22, 1937. Nina attended the East Lake School for grades 1-3, then attended Zion Lutheran School in Brighton through eighth grade and was confirmed into Zion Lutheran Church. She graduated from Brighton High School in 1946. In 1947, she married Delford Schloo, of Brighton. Nina was a diligent homemaker and was active in the organizations of Zion. When Del retired from the family owned business, Schloo's Clothing store in Brighton, Nina and he enjoyed their new business, The Glass Station, in which they bought, sold, and traveled to do shows dealing with Depression glass and other collectibles. Nina remained in her home until September 2014, when she moved to Inglenook of Brighton. She moved to the Reflections memory unit of Inglenook in May 2016. Nina was preceded in death by her husband Del, daughter Maureen (1989 car accident), grandson Nate Weber, and son-in-law Charlie Leibbrandt. Survivors include four daughters: Carla Weber (Greg Berwick) of Peyton, Merrill Leibbrandt (Terry Martin) of Imperial,

Neb., Louise (Steve) Bennett of Grand Junction, Ellen Schloo (Melissa Wicker) of Brighton; eight grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. Service 11 a.m. Feb. 20 at Zion Lutheran Church. Tabor-Rice Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be sent to the Bethesda Home (c/o Zion Lutheran Church, 1400 Skeel St., Brighton, CO 80601) or to Zion Lutheran Church. Full obit Tabor-Rice.

Wesley Koyano, 93, died Jan. 25. He was the oldest son of seven children of Kiyoshi and Shikiye Koyano from Kumamoto Prefecture, Japan. To avoid incarceration of Japanese Americans from Executive Order 9066 in 1942, the Koyanos evacuated from San Jose, Calif., to Keenesburg. In 1944, Wesley enlisted in the Army and served in Livorno, Italy, as part of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team during World War II. After the war, he returned to farm in Brighton where met his wife of 59 years, Sumi Tochiara, and had two children, Duane and Yoko. In 1966, Wesley moved the family to Thousand Oaks, Calif., to become a landscape gardener. He served two years as president of the Southern California Gardeners Federation. Wesley's most memorable event transpired on Nov. 2, 2011, when he received the Congressional Gold Medal with his fellow soldiers of the 100th/442nd RCT and Military Intelligence Service in Washington, D.C. He was preceded in death by his wife, Sumi. Survivors includes his son Duane (Karen) Koyano; daughter Yoko (Wayde) Shimoda; and three granddaughters. A memorial service, 5 p.m. on Saturday, at the San Fernando Valley Japanese American Community Center. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations to the National Veterans Network and the Go For Broke National Education Center.
