City has fitness options for kids 8-plus

Children ages 8 and older are now welcome to join select fitness classes at Brighton Recreation Center.

The Recreation Center staff announced the new options to the center's fitness schedule, adding that an adult must be present for the entire class. Some of the classes that now allow children to participate include yoga, dance jam, cycling and Pilates.

"We've had a lot of requests from parents for activities for kids this age," Fitness Supervisor Kristin

Meaux said. "We want to encourage kids of all ages to be active as much as we can."

To find a class that allows child participation, visit the Brighton Recreation Center or go to www.brightonrecreation.com for available classes under "Fitness & Wellness" and Kids 8 (those selected youth classes are marked with a double asterisk (**)).
