Ride your bike in the Festival of Lights Parade

Bike Brighton invites community members to join them as they ride their bikes in the 22nd Annual Festival of Lights Parade Saturday in downtown Brighton. Call Mark Heidt at 303-655-2170 by Wednesday to sign up.

Riders will be expected to ride and complete the 2.5-mile parade route. To stay with the Festival of Lights theme, bike frames or the rider should be illuminated.

Interested participants should meet at the parking lot of the former Treads building, 269 E. Bridge St., at 3:45 p.m. Saturday. Participants will be able to park, unload bikes and sign waivers. The group will travel to the parade-staging area at 4 p.m. and lineup for the parade between 4:30-5 p.m. The parade is scheduled from 5-7 p.m. After the parade, the group will travel back to the parking lot. Those who already have participated in a Bike Brighton bike ride in 2017 still have valid waivers. Children under 12 will need a parent accompanying them.

For questions or to apply, contact Heidt at 303-655-2170.
